Job Announcement

East Tennessee Field Representative
East Tennessee

Tennessee Wildlife Federation seeks a dynamic individual to manage programming for its Hunting and Fishing Academy program in the East Tennessee area.

Founded in 1946 and headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee Wildlife Federation is a nonprofit organization dedicated to leading the conservation, sound management, and wise use of Tennessee's wildlife, waters and wild places. For over 78 years, it has been one of the leading voices for sportsmen and women, wildlife enthusiasts, and conservation.

Its work is diverse, spanning public policy to habitat conservation. The Federation's Conservation Policy program engages in legislative and regulatory matters on the local, state, and federal levels that affect Tennessee’s natural resources and the interests of those who care about them. Hunters for the Hungry provides more than a half-million servings of venison annually to hungry Tennesseans. Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program promotes the shooting sports and an outdoor lifestyle to nearly 2,000 student-athletes across the state. Hunting and Fishing Academy provides hands-on outdoor experiences to our next generation of sportsmen and women. The Federation's Habitat Conservation program is actively involved in habitat restoration and stewardship initiatives statewide.
