

Forest Service
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

JOIN OUR TEAM

FOREST SERVICE WILDLAND FIRE CAREERS

Apply on USAJobs.gov April 14–24, 2025.

Available positions and pay:

Hiring managers will fill multiple vacancies using the new Wildland Fire Management series, with compensation based on the new 2025 Wildland Firefighters Locality Pay Tables. Pay plans include Wage Grade, Wage Leader, and General Schedule levels 3–13. Positions include aviation officers, dispatchers, equipment operators, fire engine operators, fire management officers, fire planners, fire prevention specialists, forestry aids and technicians, handcrew members, helitack crew members, hotshot crew members, pilots, prescribed fire and fuels specialists, smokejumpers, and more.

Benefits may include:

- Career advancement opportunities
- Overtime and hazard pay
- Paid time off and paid holidays
- Medical, vision, and dental plans
- Flexible spending accounts
- Life insurance
- Retirement and Thrift Savings Plans
- Flexible, seasonal, or year-round schedules
- Wellness programs
- Paid training and educational opportunities (locally and nationally)
- Employee housing (if available)

More information:

For more details, scan the QR code or visit fs.usda.gov/working-with-us/careers/recruitment-events/wildland-fire-careers.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.